Index Outlook

Last week, the domestic benchmark index scaled a record high of 17792, supported by favorable economic data and government reforms in telecommunications and banking, as well as a production-linked incentive (PLI) for the automobile sector. Finally, the Nifty Future managed to close above the 17,500 mark at 17603 up by 1.38% (WoW) with an addition in open interest of 0.69% (WoW) indicating neutral bias for the short term. During the week, India VIX shoots up by 9.23% and closed at 15.23%, indicating volatile swings in the market ahead. Another derivatives indicator, Nifty Put-Call ratio currently stands at 1.45, up 7.41% (WoW). Technically, the index has created a bearish dark cover cloud candlestick pattern on daily scale, which is a bearish pattern. As per this pattern, a daily close below 17537 will trigger profit booking. On the downside, 17200 and 17000 will act as support points. On the higher side, 17800 and 18000 will act as strong resistance points for the index. Going forward, a new variant of Covid-19 cases, progress of the vaccine drive, US Fed meet, progress of monsoon, Rupee movement against the Dollar, bond yields movement, Fii's flow, global cues, and crude oil price movement will dictate the trend on the bourses next week.
